

The Rose Hill Author Series is a partnership between the Pat Conroy Literary Center, the Rose Hill Readers book club, and Oak Terrace at Rose Hill to highlight the exceptional stories of Lowcountry authors in engaging lunchtime discussions. The next Rose Hill Author Series lunch will be held on Tuesday, March 24, beginning at noon and will feature best-selling writer Cassandra King Conroy, author of the recently published memoir Tell Me a Story: My Life with Pat Conroy.

Held at Oak Terrace at Rose Hill (4 Clubhouse Dr., Bluffton), this special literary event is open to the public. Menu: Chicken Parmesan with spaghetti noodles and marinara, Caesar salad, toasted garlic bread, cheesecake with raspberry sauce, and soft drinks. Books will be available for sale and signing following the discussion. A portion of the proceeds from this event helps support the year-round educational mission of the nonprofit Pat Conroy Literary Center. Register for $25 online by March 20 at <https://rosehillauthorseries4.bpt.me> .
