

Live-streamed Author Programs, Online Writers Workshops, Virtual Tour & Art Exhibition

The annual Pat Conroy Literary Festival began as Pat Conroy's 70th birthday celebration in October 2015. Hosted by the nonprofit Pat Conroy Literary Center, this year's festival will be held as a series live-streamed author presentations and panel discussions, online writing workshops, exhibits, and virtual tours on November 5-8.

The 2020 festival will be highlighted by appearances by Brad Taylor, former U.S. Army Special Forces officer and now the New York Times best-selling author of the Pike Logan thriller series; Elizabeth O'Neill Verner Award-winning artist Mary Whyte, author of We the People: Portraits of Veterans in America; and, from A

www.patconroyliterarycenter.org