

Museum members and the public are invited to attend the Annual Meeting of Beaufort History Museum (BHM) on Thursday, January 28, 2021 at 5:30 PM in the Beaufort City Council Chambers, located at 1911 Boundary Street inside City Hall. All who attend will be required to wear a face mask and observe social distancing protocols.

Pre- registration on the BHM website is required and attendance is limited to the first 40 people to sign up. The session will be recorded for viewing and posted on the website for those not able to attend in person.

At the meeting, milestones of the past year will be celebrated and plans for 2021 will be revealed, including a review of ongoing renovations of the Museum's main exhibit hall and the plan for new exhibits. Current Museum members also will vote on Board of Directors nominees. The slate will be presented to BHM members in advance of the annual meeting via email.

The Beaufort History Museum, which was founded in 1939, has evolved to focus specifically on the deep and rich history of the Beaufort District. It strives to manage and display artifacts and documents held by the City of Beaufort, telling the compelling stories of this area from the early 16th Century until modern times.
