

A Garden-a-Day Keeps the Blues Away

Written by Editor
Tuesday, 19 May 2015 10:31

The Beaufort Garden Club's 21st Annual Garden-a-Day event takes place the week of June 8-12. Every day, rain or shine from 9:30-12:30, take a leisurely stroll through a lovely private garden, guided by local Master Gardeners.

Monday features two gardens. The garden on Prince St. boasts a perennial garden bordering a croquet pitch. Beside the guesthouse a collection of plumeria soften the landscape. Also, a 200-year-old cedar and a 100 year old pecan tree shade an area consisting of ferns, azaleas, tea olives and hydrangea.

On the corner of Washington St. and Carteret you'll find an ivy covered brick wall surrounding many exquisite antique camellia bushes. Sit on one of the benches overlooking

A Garden-a-Day Keeps the Blues Away

Written by Editor
Tuesday, 19 May 2015 10:31

~~With this beautiful view, it's no wonder why the garden is so popular. The garden is a beautiful place to visit and it's a great place to spend time. The garden is a beautiful place to visit and it's a great place to spend time. The garden is a beautiful place to visit and it's a great place to spend time.~~